

The New Normal: Deciding Community Priorities in a Downsized Economy.

JOIN US FOR A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION on THE STATE BUDGET

Every month, the Twin Cities Daily Planet's Community Conversations tackle a different issue. In April, we're asking Twin Cities residents, "As the legislature and governor clash over a taxes and spending, what should our priorities be for the state budget?" Come and get some budget basics, take a stab at balancing it yourself (don't worry, you don't have to be an expert), tell us how budget cuts would affect you, and exchange ideas about what should be happening in the legislature.

Our discussion guide will provide background information, and our facilitator will keep the conversation on track. By participating in the dialogue, though, you'll provide the part that matters most. We'll report on these conversations in the TCDP, and the Bush Foundation will share the results with policy makers.
